

THOUGHT OF THE DAY

DAY 1

Ikhlas – Pray that your intentions remain pure and that Allah accepts your efforts.

DAY 2

- Deepen my connection with the Qur'an.
- Apply the Qur'an and Sunnah in daily life.
- Seek closeness to Allah

DAY 3

Reflect the beauty of love by uplifting hearts, spreading joy, and smiling sincerely.

DAY 4

Keep the Hereafter as my focus by nurturing strong iman and ensuring every action seeks Allah's pleasure.

DAY 5

True legacy is not about preserving the past, but shaping a better future.

The Legacy of Ibrahim (AS):

- Seek Allah through reflection on His creation.
- Show kindness and respect, even to those who disagree with you.
- Remain steadfast and unwavering through every trial.

DAY 6

- Prioritize salah — pray on time and establish Tahajjud.
- Fast regularly — Mondays, Thursdays, and 9th Dhul Hijjah.
- Revise Surah Al-Baqarah hifz and reflect on its meaning.
- Make Quran read with understanding and purpose.

DAY 7

Surah At-Tawbah 9:36:

“Do not wrong yourselves. Honor the four sacred months, strive to develop taqwa, and remember that Allah loves the muttaqeen—those who are mindful of Him.”

DAY 8

- Have I planned to make the most of the 10 blessed days of Dhul Hijjah?
- Am I striving on Day 8 & Day 9 to increase my worship and achieve the best from them?

Best dhikr for the Day of Arafah (9th Dhul Hijjah):

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ، لَهُ الْمُلْكُ
وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ، وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

DAY 9

Patience is among the greatest qualities of a believer. It leads to Jannah, and true patience is accompanied by modesty and faith.

DAY 10

Why was Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه called As-Siddiq and why was his status so high?

- The first adult male to accept Islam, he believed in the Prophet's ﷺ message without hesitation, including the event of Mi'raj, earning the title As-Siddiq (the truthful one).
- The closest companion of the Prophet ﷺ, he remained by his side through every hardship.
- He sacrificed much of his wealth to support the early Muslim community.
- He was a shield for the Prophet ﷺ, protecting and standing by him at all times.

DAY 11

Good companionship strengthens faith—the example of Abu Bakr Siddiq رضي الله عنه reminds us of this.

- Do my friendships bring others closer to the Qur'an?
- Do my actions leave a positive impact on my children?
- Am I a role model in staying firm upon Imaan?

DAY 12

How do I nurture my relationships with my spouse and children?

Khadijah رضي الله عنها is our role model—her love, sacrifice, and support for the Prophet ﷺ earned her immense honor and glad tidings of Jannah.

DAY 13

Do I seek people's approval, or do I strive for Allah's pleasure?

My goal is to shape myself in a way that earns Allah's acceptance by staying positive, accepting others, and showing love, appreciation, and respect..

DAY 14

Muharram is one of the four sacred months and is known as the Month of Allah. Honor its sanctity by avoiding conflicts, controlling speech, and staying away from backbiting and idle talk—during this month and always.

DAY 15

- Fasting on Ashura carries great reward. The Prophet ﷺ said:
- "Fasting on the day of Ashura is an expiation for the previous year."
- Allah forgives sins related to our worship, but if we have wronged another person, we should seek their forgiveness, as their rights must be restored.

DAY 16

The Power of Dua

- The Tabi'i Abdullah bin Qais devoted himself to worship and made 3 special duas: to remove worldly desires from his heart, fear only Allah, and reduce his sleep.
- Ask Allah for a life of purpose, dedication, and worship—with less excess in eating, talking, and sleeping.

DAY 17

A person who reads, understands, and acts upon the Qur'an will have their parents honored with a crown of light in the Hereafter.

Strive to please Allah by learning, following, and memorizing the Qur'an, and treat your parents with respect, kindness, and gratitude.

DAY 18

- Luqman was asked how he attained wisdom. He replied that he protected two trusts: his tongue from useless speech and his eyes from harmful sights.
- These two organs are never satisfied, so guard them carefully. Abu Bakr As-Siddiq رضي الله عنه would hold and discipline his tongue.
- May Allah help us protect our tongue and eyes.

DAY 19

A pure heart is one that is free from resentment, anger, and grudges. Cleanse your heart by forgiving others, making dua for them, and seeking Allah's forgiveness.

DAY 20

True gratitude increases our blessings and brings us closer to Allah. A thankful heart recognizes that everything we have is from Him and responds with humility, obedience, and generosity.

Let gratitude become a daily habit acknowledge Allah's favors, appreciate those around you, and use every blessing in a way that pleases Him.
